[B]RITISH AIRMAN HOPS OFF TODAY ON GLOBE FLIGHT

Takes Different Course But He Hopes to Make It Around the World Ahead of U. S.

GETS BIG SEND-OFF

Southampton, Eng., March 25. (INS.)—Squadron Leader A. Stuart McClaren of the Royal Air Force, hopped off at Calshot Airdrome at 12.10 o'clock this afternoon on a round the world flight. McClaren hopes to beat the American army aviators who set out from Los Angeles last week to girdle the globe.

The first leg of the journey is from Southampton to Lyons, France.

While the journey is unofficial it has the approval of the British air Ministry. The route lies through Continental Europe to Cario, Egypt, thence through Asia to Tokio and across the Pacific. McClaren plans to fly across Canada to Newfoundland, Azores and Portugal. He plans to end then across the Atlantic to the [illegible] Southampton on the return [illegible] before July 1.

The total mileage of the proposed route is 2?,260. McClaren said that [illegible] accidents, he should make it [illegible] less than 300 hours of actual flying.

[illegible] weather was bad during the [illegible] and for a time it looked as [illegible] the flight would have to be postponed. A drenching rain swept [illegible] and one and there was a thick [illegible] over the English Chanel.

McClaren arose early and carefully [illegible] his machine—A big vulture [illegible] plane—which was [illegible] with stores of food, fuel, extra [illegible] spare parts and cameras.

[illegible] Andrew, the engineer, [illegible] motor and found it in [illegible] order.

[illegible] Penderleigh, the [illegible] of the crew, wanted to [illegible] in spite of the weather.

[illegible] the weather had cleared [illegible] and McClaren decided to [illegible] start. Lord Thomson, [illegible] State for Air; Air Marshal Salmon, Gen. Braucker, and [illegible] officials, were present and wish[ed] him Godspeed and success. "Goodbye and good luck," shouted flying field attaches as the giant [illegible], with a deafening roar, rose [illegible] misty sky.

McClaren hoped to reach Lyons [illegible] afternoon.

South Dakota Voters To Express Presidential Preferences Today

Sioux Falls, S. D. Mar. 25. (INS.) [illegible] South Dakota will remain [illegible] of conservative states, or [illegible] progressive column was [illegible] its voters were deciding [illegible] presidential primary. It [illegible] first state primary in which [illegible] had contests.

NOT LIKE THE CATS WE KNOW

Washington, Mar. 25. (INS.) [illegible] was successful today [illegible] the return to [illegible] Coolidge of a pet [illegible] which strayed away [illegible] White House during [illegible] last Friday night.

News of [illegible] disappearance was broadcasted last night from Washington and New York [illegible] thousands of radio listeners, among whom was Ben C. Fink, an employe of the navy department.

Fink brought the cat back to the President today. He said he found it in the munitions building, a mile from the White House.

REPUBLIC FORMED IN GREECE SAYS EARLY DISPATCHES

London, March 25. (INS.)—A republic has been formally proclaimed in Greece, according to a Central News dispatch from Athens this afternoon.

A later dispatch said that the proclamation of a Republic is subject to a National Plebiscite to be held later. The Republican resolution passed the Greek Assembly with a majority of 285 votes.

MELLON DECLARES BONUS COST UNDER THE NEW PROPOSAL IS UNDERESTIMATED

Washington, March 24. (INS.)—A difference of approximately $2,590,000,000 exists between the cost of the soldier bonus as estimated by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and the bonus leaders in congress who recently put the bill through, it was revealed this afternoon.

Senator Smoot, Republican, of Utah, submitted the estimates as $4,856,750,000, as against the $2,190,000,000 which Chairman Green of the House ways and means committee estimated at the time of passage.

MONDAY A BUSY DAY AT CAPITAL "SCANDAL MILL"

Washington, March 25. (INS.)—The National Capital's "scandal mill" ground out the following developments on Monday:

1—Harry F. Sinclair, oil Millionaire, was cited for contempt for refusing to testify before the Senate Public Lands Committee in the Teapot Dome investigation.

2—C. C. Chase, son-in-law of former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall, refused to testify concerning E. L. Doheny's $100,000 loan to Fall on the ground that it might incriminate him.

3—Carmi Thompson, Ohio Republican leader, denied that he knew of any "deals" in the Republican national convention in 1920 between party chiefs and oil interests in conection with the nomination of Warren Harding.

4—Harold Viaian, reporter of the New York times, told the oil committee that Joseph O'Neil, assistant to Will H. Hays, was the source of the story that Harry Sinclair gave 75,000 shares of oil stock to clear up the Republicn campaign deficit.

5—O'Neil in a telegram to the committee declared that Vivian's testimony was false, and Vivian said O'Neil's telegram was false.

6—Senator Spencer, Rep., of Missouri, charged that Secretary of the Interior John Barton Payne had made 700 oil leases during the Wilson administration, and demanded an investigation of the contribution of Ed Doheny, California oil magnate, to the Democratic campaign fund.

7—The Daugherty investigating committee held no public session, but launched a private inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the death of the late Jesse Smith, as the result of hints by Roxie Stinson, Smith's ex-wife, that he did not committ suicide but was murdered in the apartment of the Attorney General.

8—Martin J. Powers, a Philadelphia lawer, denied before the oil committee that he was scheduled to get a cut in on Teapot Dome."

9—Michael Circelli, of Philadelphia, testified that powers had told him of a "deal" in connection with the leasing of Teapot Dome in which Col. James Darden, friend of Harding and Daugherty, John McGlynn and two other men were to raise $40,000 each.

10—W. W. Tarbell, of Bethel, Con., criticised the Teapot Dome lease as detrimental to the Government.

11.—Announcement was made that the Sinclair and Doheny leases would be investigated by a federal grand jury here, beginning April 10.

Mrs. Thomas McCausland, Mrs. E. L. Jones, Mrs. A. C. Lynn, and Mrs. Geo. W. Miller were a shopping party from Philipsburg in Clearfield's stores yesterday.

WANTS "TRUTH SERUM" USED ON SMOOT

Washington, Mar. 25. (INS.)—Science was projected into the Senate's investigation today when the Wheeler Committee received an appeal to "try scopolamine—the truth serum" on its witnesses.

M. H. Wilcoxon, of Santa Monica, Calif. urged that the truth serum be tried first on Senator Reed Smoot, Republican of Utah, who in replying to a recent attack on him in the Senate, declared "if it were possible that my whole heart could be opened so that the world could read by thoughts, I am perfectly willing that it be done."

Smoot's statement followed insinuations that "something was wrong" because he sent a secret note to E. L. Doheny while the oil magnate was testifying in the Walsh investigation.

"The Scopolamine truth test has been widely practiced," said Wilcoxon's appeal. "Senator Smoot has offered himself as 'perfectly willing' if a plan were possible to open his thoughts to the world. The scopolamine test would furnish a way."

COMMITTEE FINDS FALL LIED ABOUT BANK LOAN IN WEST

By KENNETH CLARK
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, March 25.—Harking back to its original line of investigation, the Senate oil committee today delved deeper into the private financial transactions of ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall, who leased the naval oil reserves to Harry F. Sinclair and E. L. Doheny.

M. D. Thatcher, president of the First National Bank of Pueblo, Colo., from whose institution Fall said he borrowed $100,000 to improve his ranch at Three Rivers, N. M., was the first witness called, and he denied that his bank had made any loan to Fall in 1921-22.

Senator Walsh read to Thatcher the statement Fall made to the committee on Dec. 27 last, saying he had borrowed $100,000 from Thatcher's bank to install an electiracl plant at his ranch.

The only $100,000 loan made by his bank in any way approaching Fall, the banker said, was to the Tres Ritos Land and Cattle Company, in which Fall has an interest.

This company, Thatcher said, had established a line of credit with his bank up to $200,000, secured by land and cattle.

"The company now owes the bank $100,000," Thatcher said, adding if it defaulted the bank would gain possession of the assets.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Leitzinger have returned from Baltimore, where Mr. Leitzinger had gone for the purpose of consulting a specialist concerning his health.

Mrs. Dean H. Bloom and Mrs. L. R. Browne motored to Philipsburg yesterday.

"When The Progress Doesn't Come"

MY father says the paper he reads ain't put up right;
He finds a lot of faults, too, he does, persuin' it all night;
He says there ain't a single thing in it worth to read,
And that it doesn't print the kind stuff the people need;
He tossed it aside and says it's strictly on the bum,
But you aught to hear him holler when the Progress doesn't come.

HE reads about the weddin's and he snorts like all get out;
He reads the social doin's with a most derisive shout,
He says they make the papers for the women folks alone;
He'll read about the parties and he'll fume and fret and groan;
He says of information, it doesn't have a crumb,
But you aught to hear him holler when the Progress doesn't come.

HE is the first one to grab it and he reads it plumb clean through.
He doesn't miss an item, or a want ad—that is true;
He says they don't know what we want, the darn newspaper guys;
"I'm going to take a day some time and go and put 'em wise;
"Sometimes it seem as though they must be deaf and blind and dumb."
But you aught to hear him holler when the Progress doesn't come.

OPERATORS AGREE TO DEMAND LOWER WAGE OF MINERS

Positions Taken by the Miners and Operators Make Long Drawn Out Controversy Certain.

MEET LATE TODAY

Philadelphia, Pa., March 25. (INS.)—The Central Pennsylvania Bituminous Coal Operators' Association was on record today as favoring a decrease in wages of miners in the soft coal field.

An agreement to this effect was reached on the eve of a meeting between the scale committee of the operators' association and of district No. 2 United Mine Workers of America, which was to open at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the Bellevue-Stratford hotel.

Last week at the Altoona convention of district No. 2, the scale committee of the miners was instructed to secure a wage increase and a three-year agreement instead of one, and in view of this and the operators' decision, forecasts were made that the controversy would be drawn out before an agreement is reached.

The operators made known their position late last night after a meeting of several hundred members of the association. Efforts were made to send the scale committee, which is synonymous with the executive committee to the meeting this afternoon with power to make the best terms with the miners, but a discussion terminated in the framing of a resolution stipulating that the present wage scale cannot be continued, that the miners must submit to a decrease and that settlement plans proposed must be referred to the association for action.

B. M. Clark of Indiana, heads the employers' scale committee and John Brophy, president of district No. 2, heads the workers' representatives.

The presence of John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers, is not expected.

AUTO BANDITS TAKE $100,000 IN BIG MAIL ROBBERY IN ILLINOIS

Harvey, Ill., Mar. 25. (INS.)—Four bandits today held up employes at the Illinois Central station here, seized two registered mail sacks containing between $110,000 and $150,000 in currency, and escaped in an automobile.

The money was consigned from the Federal Reserve Bank at Chicago to the First National Bank of Harvey to be used for payrolls of large manufacturing plants here.

It was being transferred from an I. C. R. R. car to a truck when the holdup occurred.

A mile and a half from Harvey the speeding bandit car crashed into a southbound automobile, demolished it and continued, apparently little harmed, toward Chicago.

James Purdon and his college chum, Martin Miller have returned to Dickinson College after spending their vacation at the former's home.

JOHN SHADE POST LEAPS INTO FIFTH PLACE IN STATE AS A RESULT OF EFFORT MADE YESTERDAY IN BIG MEMBER DRIVE

Noses Out Reading, Wilkes-Barre, York, and Is Now Sitting Pretty With Such Big Towns As Shamokin.

AND STILL GOING STRONG

Once again we are forced to doff our chapeau to the energetic go-get-'em lads who make up the membership of John Shade Post of the American Legion. They, often in the past, demonstrated that when they had a task to do they did it. That was the case with their special membership drive, which started Monday March 17th and in one short week resulted in boosting the membership total to almost unbelievable heights—and the end is not yet.

When Commander Chase, at the start of the drive, told the boys they should shoot at the 600 mark, very few Legionnaires except the enthusiastic Commander, who knew what his live wire gang could do, thought they would ever get within shooting distance of that enormous total. All that is over with now, everybody believes, in fact everybody connected with the local outfit knows it can and will be done, and that the membership of John Shade Post will have reached the 600 mark by Thursday night next, the end of the drive, barring earthquake, pestilence or another declaration of war.

The membership drive had been progressing fairly satisfactorily, all week but yesterday was set apart for the supreme effort. The goal to be reached at the end of the day's special effort was set at 430 members and those figures looked to be pretty far off at that. The zero hour 2 o'clock found the different teams of solicitors rarin' to go and they went when the signal shot was fired. They were all to report at a special meeting in the Legion rooms at 8 o'clock last night. And what a report, my countrymen! One bunch of real hustlers rolled wearily into the room (there wasn't a breath of moonshine about them either) but a few minutes before the "zero hour" and modestly turned over a final batch of 32 names and when their return was added to what had already been reported the astounding figures of 510 new members were given out by the "figure hounds." Think of it, an even 80 more than the goal fixed for this stage of the effort.

There was a hot time in the old rooms for a few minutes. It was then announced taht the drive would end with a banquet at the Dimeling Hotel Thursday evening and every fellow present swore by the beard of the Prophets that the membership of John Shade Post would be no less than 600 active husky ex-service men when the Master of Ceremonies called for order to anounce the final figures.

That means 90 more members and it also means that the fellow who has not done his full duty up to this time had better get busy during the next couple of days, because you'll look like Hel-vetia and feel like Heller when the campaign ends if you have failed to do your part.

Here's how our Post stood when the membership drive began:—

CHARGES WORK WORKS HARDEST FOR HOME STATE

Washington, March 25. (INS.)—Formal charges that Secretary of the Interior Work is using his official position "to further the interests of Colorado in the development of the Colorado River project in prejudice to other states interested," were telegraphed to the House irrigation committee today by Gov. Hunt, of Arizona.

The committee answered Gov. Hunt's complaint with a telegraphic request to come to Washington and lay the facts before it.

Work was formerly Republican national committeeman from Colorado.

Ex-Mayor Adam Haag, of DuBois, was a Clearfield visitor today. Mr. Haag was recently appointed an Alderman by Governor Pinchot.

HORRORS!

Washington, March 25 (INS)—Viscountess Margaret Marie de Sibour, wife of a well known capital architect, was confined to her bed today under the care of a trained nurse—all because an unsympathetic cop gave her a ride in "the wagon" yesterday after she had run her car into an unoccupied car parked on Q street.

The Viscount arrived at the station house breathless soon after the Viscountess got there and posted $300 collateral.

The Viscountess' friends are indignant.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Franklin, Pa.—A gold insignia has been given William Forbes at West Point for his work as guard on the future Generals' Basket Ball team this year. Forbes formerly played on the High School quintet here.

Harrisburg, Pa.,—Candidates for the House from counties where there are contests are drawing for place on the primary ballot at the State Bureau of Elections.

Harrisburg Pa.,—Governor Pinchot will be a member of the Federal Grand Jury at the session of court here May 5. His name was drawn last night in Scranton.

Sharon, Pa.,—Frances McCullough 12, is under suspension from school here today because she refused to stand when the National anthem was being sung.

Pittsburg, Pa.—Police charge that disgruntled school boys were responsible for the attempt to fire the Belmar public school here.

Pittsburgh—Police began to fear for their jobs when two men arrested themselves. J. L. Baker "pulled" a police box and politely requested his arrest when the patrol wagon arrived and James Habrick wandered into the Northside station demanding to be arrested.

Philadelphia, March 25 (INS.)—William Fisher 25 years old, was in a dying condition in a hospital today with a charge of murdering his 24 year old wife, Mildred, lodged against against him by police.

Believed to have been prompted by jealousy Fisher shot his wife four times late last night while they were out strolling with a woman friend. Mrs. Fisher was killed instantly and Fisher turned the revolver on himself and sent two bullets into his brain.

Madville, Pa., March 25 (INS.)—Lavergne Collins, 16, son of Charles Collins, is in a serious condition here suffering from wounds received when playing with a loaded gun. The youth although dangerously wounded in the abdomen, walked some distance before collapsing.

The Highway Dept. Lets Bids For Big Mileage In Eight Different Counties

Harrisburg, Pa., Mar. 25. (INS.)—The State Highway Department today announced the awarding of contracts in eight counties. All of the contracts were awarded to the firms which were the low bidders on the projects. Two of the projects—one in Erie county, and one in Butler—are for projects approximately five miles in length.

The awards were as follows:

Cambria county, Richland and Stony Creek townships, route No. 222, 7,303 feet, to Crissey Construction Company, of Johnstown, for $85,867.

Butler county, Mercer township, route No. 73, 10,548 feet, to Charles Winters Construction Company, of Renfrew, at $91,540.30.

Erie county, in Waterford and Leboeuf townships, route No. 271, 26,198 feet, to Henry W. Horst Company, of Rock Island, at $288,008.10.

Armstrong county, in South Buffalo township, route No. 69, 11,515 feet, to Charles Winters Construction Company, Renfrew, Pa., at $96,704.70.

Butler county, in Butler, Connoquenessing and Franklin townships, route No. 79, 26,644 feet, to Fort Pitt Construction Company, Pittsburgh, at $301,788.55.

NO CHANGE IN THE SMALLPOX SCOURGE TODAY

There is no change in the smallpox situation in Clearfield and vicinity since last evening's report.

Strict quarantine has been placed about the Thirteenth street house where Mack Park is confined, while the negro colony at the Sewer Pipe works and at the Colored settlement near the Harbison-Walker brick works at Woodland are under surveillance.

The residents in these sections will be segregated there until all danger of further spread of the disease is over. The men will all be vaccinated and allowed to go to and from their work but no person will be allowed to leave the neighborhood for any purpose.

Three guards, working in eight hour shifts are employed at each place to enforce the quarantine. State Health officer John P. Smith accompanied Sheriff Thomas J. Lowell to the sewer pipe works and to Woodland this morning and at each place Sheriff Lowell swore in the small pox guards as deputy Sheriffs in order that they might have greater authority in enforcing the quarantine regulations and the power to make arrests for any and all violations.

GEMMELL CHANGES HIS MIND AND WILL TAKE HIS FORTUNE

Pittsburgh, March 24.—Thomas Gemmell, a steel worker, today learned through a newspaper advertisement that he had been made a beneficiary in the estate of his brother, John Gemmell, whom he had not seen for 60 years. The latter died recently at Namaimo, British Columbia, and according to information here left his estate, valued at $200,000, to his brother. The advertisement seeking information regarding Gemmell, was inserted by the Standard Trust Company of Vancouver, B. C.

Gemmell at first declared he would waive rights to the estate, stating that he preferred "the simple life," and that he had saved enough to keep his wife and himself " in a manner that suits us." He later declared, however, that he would communicate with the Vancouver bank for the benefit of a niece who had made her home with him since childhood.

Gemmell said he last saw his brother when John Gemmell left their home near Glasgow, Scotland, and came to America. Gemmell followed some years later but they had not been in close touch with each other, he said.

The man referred to in the above dispatch was a former resident of Clearfield county, working for several years for Mrs. Mountz at Janesville. He left Clearfield county about [illegible] years ago. The advertisement for information leading to his location appeared in The Progress recently.

TUBERCULOSIS WORK IS PLANNED FOR EVERY COUNTY

Practical tuberculosis prevention work will be undertaken in every county of the state by the 135 field nurses of the state health department as a result of plans formulated by Miss Alice M. O'Halloran, director of the bureau of nursing.

Field nurses in the rural and industrial counties of the state have been instructed to visit the home of every child stricken with measles, scarlet fever and whooping cough to instruct the mothers in the manner in which the weakened child should be cared for in order to prevent tuberculosis germs from gaining a foot hold. State health physicians have discovered that quite often tuberculosis is the direct aftermath of the so-called childhood diseases.

As a result, the state health nurses have been instructed to co-operate with local physicians and school authorities, learn the identity of the children who are ill and then visit the homes. Mothers of convalescent youngsters will then be urged to have their children examined every six months by a physician or at the county health centers. Thus, tuberculosis will be detected in its earlier stages and the children cured.

Quite often, Miss O'Halloran stated, children contract tuberculosis when they are recuperating from measles, chicken pox and scarlet fever The disease does not manifest itself for a number of years. The only apparent symptom being languor or underweight.

The nurses will make periodical visits to the homes of the children to see that the physical examinations are being given the youngsters. In addition, the field nurses will conduce lectures to which mothers will be invited The mothers will be instructed in sanitary and hygienic practices as well as nutritional methods designed to build up the children who are below the normal weight for their age.

Some idea of the magnitude of the work to be undertaken in the child-checkup system undertaken by the state health nurses may be gained from the 1923 report of diseases. Thus last year measles attacked 67,746 children in the rural districts of the state as well as 31,545 children in the urban sections. Whooping cough was contracted by 11,047 country children and 3843 city youngsters while scarlet fever attacks were suffered by 10,148 children in the country sections and 4909 children in the cities of the state

State health officials are hopeful that the new checkup system will be the means of saving the lives of many youngsters by detecting tuberculosis in its incipiency when it yields to treatment.

GULICH AVENUE IS BAD

There was quite a bit of excitement over on Gulich avenue about dusk last evening. A belated huckster with a few pecks of potatoes left, drove up the avenue from West Market street and was attempting to unload the 'taters on the frugal housewives along the street.

He left his team standing in the road while he went around to "Red" Stauffer's back door hunting a customer. The man of the house was home and, like Andy Gump, decided he would do the marketing himself and accompanied the farmer out to where his wagon was standing to get the potatoes.

When they got to the wagon they found but one horse hitched thereto and where there had been two when the farmer left them. Noting the fact the farmer straightway put up a howl about the disappearance of the animal, charging that "someone has stolen one horse, by heck!" "Red" arose at once to the defense of the neighborhood, saying that while a flivver or two had been snitched in that neighborhood and while a Democrat or two could yet be found on the Avenue, he didn't believe a one of them would steal a horse. He then advised an organized search. He started down the avenue while the fearful loser of the horse started up on what he said it was no use as "he knew, by heck, that horse was gone."

A careful search of the highway was made from West Market street to the borough line, but nary a horse could be found by the searchers. The fruitless searchers returned to the wagon and the farmer declared he would at once notify the police of the theft of his horse. Not so the resourceful "Red," however. He showed there was more than dirt behind his ears, by asking for one more chance to redeem the reputation of the neighborhood, and bidding the now irate farmer wait where he was "Red" hotfooted it up to Charley Rhine's and got the loan of Charley's fox hound. The big dog was taken down to West Market street for a start, placed on the trail of the horse and immediately started off up through the mud. In the course of a very few minutes he bellowed out the "holed" signal and "Red," who was hurrying along as fast as his legs would carry him—which was not very fast—piped up with "there, Si, there's your derned old hoss."

It was, too. The horse was found in one of the gulleys in the road with just the tips of his cars showing. "Red" said he noticed those ear tips sticking up the two times he passed the spot, but never for a minute thot the horse could be below them.

"Red" immediately sent up the neighborhood S. O. S. call and soon the male citizenry of the avenue were at hand and after more than an hour's pulling and hauling, grunting and swearing the poor horse was dragged from the mud, the broken harness patched and the farmer got a late start for home.

Mrs. F. G. Betts and Mrs. H. B. Hartswick are entertaining the bridge tournament today at the home of Mrs. Betts.

Miss Sarah Ward of Altoona was a visitor to our town over Sunday.

Mayor John Pentz, of DuBois, accompanied by Mrs. Pentz, paid our town a visit yesterday.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE

There Is No Need To Suffer From Stomach Trouble Now

Weak, Rundown, Nervous Folks Have Found Remedy That Restores General Health by Putting Stomach Into Condition.

Poor Digestion Leads to Serious Complications — Appetite Quickly Restored.

You can no more run a Ford without gasoline than you can enjoy good health unless your stomach is in good condition No one is any stronger than their stomach, and indigestion leads to many serious complications.

When you appetite and digestion go wrong you are just out of luck You don't want to work, and couldn't if you wanted to. You gradually get weaker and weaker until the first thing you know you are laid up in bed.

If your food don't taste right; if you are uncomfortable after eating, it is a sure sign that you need a good strengthening tonic; something that will tone up not only your stomach but that will put your system back into first class condition.

A lot of local people are finding in Sulac, a remedy that has been on sale here but a short time but which has a long record of satisfaction behind it in other places, the thing they need to tone them up They say that after taking it they can once more enjoy a good meal without being sorry that they ate it.

Sulac is a certified product of the famous Southern Laboratories of Atlanta, Georgia. It is made by a new process and is so storng, so quick and so sure and so nice tasting that its users are its very best advertisements. Some of these people who are praising Sulac have tried a number of other different remedies, but until they found this wonderful combination of reconstructive remedies nothing seemed to help them. Talk to your druggist today about Sulac. He will tell you that its record is so good that no one suffering from stomach trouble will make a mistake in giving it a thorough trial He will also tell you that if you will take six bottles of it according to directions and are not benefitted that he will refund your money. The manufacturers authorize him to do this.

If you happen to live in a town where you can't buy Sulac, write the Southern Laboratories, 59 Eugenia street, Atlanta, Georgia, and it will be sent to you postpaid at $1 per bottle.

Read what these people who have used Sulac have to say about it in the columns to the right.

Drug Clerk Says It Is Wonderful For Bad Stomach

Stomach No Longer In Weak Condition—He Feels Like New Man.

NERVOUS, UNSTRUNG, DIZZY, WEAK SPELL UPSET HIM

"I've got to praise this new medicine they are introducing at the drug store because it is the real thing and all they claim it to be," enthusiastically declared Henry A. Audelin, a well known member of the Worcester Packers' Union.

"I never felt well since leaving the army. My stomach and belching spells bothered me so much I was nearly wild with gas and cramps after meals. My nerves were so unstrung I would tumble and toss half the night unable to sleep and felt shaky all day with nervousness. I guess constipation and the after effect of an operation for appendicitis had somethinb to do with my poor health also, but Sulac was just what needed. I figured a bottle or two wouldn't cost much and Sulac was praised so highly I gave it a trial and thanks to Sulac my stomach works like clockwork—I can eat anything and I eat like a hungry wolf. I am never shaky or nervous now and consequently when I tumble into bed at night I sleep like a top. I feel like a two year old all over and have gained in weight—weigh about 164 pounds—feel stronger and better all around. Sulac is a wonderful stomach remedy tonic and builder. It can't be beat, continued this well-known man of Worcester; Barker's Chambers, Front St., and formerly Sergeant, Transport Division at Headquarters, Boston, Mass.

Anybody can get the same results if troubled that way and it surely feels good to feel good these balmy Spring days. A full treatment is guaranteed to relieve you completely to your satisfaction or it cost nothing. Dron in at the drug store today and let us tell you more about Sulac. Leadign druggists are agents for this remarkable product of the Southern Laboratories here.

A Grand Stomach Remedy, Prominent Resident Declares

Declares New Remedy Brings Real Results for Local People—He Knows.

GLADLY GIVES HIS OPINION OF SULAC

"Nothing would please me better than to have my friends ask me when in our drug store, about my personal opinion of this remarkable new remedy. I am asked many times a day about various remedies. I assure everybody I would not recommend Sulac unless I knew the formula was good and that it really accomplishes what they claim for it, irrespective for ist formula. I have been recommending Sulac to my friends and customers for about four months and I'm satisfied it's the most satisfactory one that can be created for the treatment of stomach, liver and blood and as a real constructive tonic," declared George Labar, the genial popular gentleman behind the counter at a Marlboro drug store. Such testimony from one who comes in contact with them al lsurely must convince the most skejtical that Sulac is worth testing in your own case. Drop in at the drug store—Ask about it—Send for a bottle to test—better still take a full treatment of six bottles on positive guarantee if it fails to satisfy you with actual results, your money will be cheerfully refunded You can find people all over this section who have taken it and found it a truly wonderful remedy.

Note:—Mail orders prepaid anywhere. $1 per bottle or 6 bottles $5. Each bottle is guaranteed also to be the genuine Sulac—a certified product of the nationally known Southern Laboratories, 59 Eugenia street, Atlanta, Ga. Your own druggist probably can supply you, but if he cant, write the manufacturers.

Sulac is sold by Hunter's Drug Store and other high class druggists.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Weaver, Clearfield county's oldest resident, celebrated the 102d anniversary of her birth at her home in Burnside on Sunday, March 23d.

Mrs. Catherine Hepburn Thompson, of Curwensville, who celebrated her 100th anniversary on March 7th, is the second oldest person in Clearfield county.

Jefferson county has a woman within her borders who claims to be 110 years of age, according to the following from the Punxsutawney Spirit:

Daniel Barnett, of this place, informs the Spirit that his wife's mother, Mrs. Susan Henry, who lives near Goodville, will be 110 years old in April. The precise date of Mrs. Henry's birth is apparently not known, but from the means of estimating her age which her children have at hand, they insist that she is now in her 110th year. And she is still functioning fairly well. Last year she had a nice garden, which she made and cultivated with her own hands.

Persons living in the same community, who have known Mrs. Henry for many years, say she is very old, but have the impression that her age is somewhere around ninety. But maybe they have been deceived by her appearance. Her folks say she is ten years older than her late husband, who died 13 years ago at the age of 97. If Mrs. Henry is as old as her folks believe her to be she is perhaps the oldest woman in the United States.

George Nox McCain in a recent article in the Philadelphia Public Ledger gave the following interesting dope on "long livers":—

Sarah Thompson, an inmate of the Washington county almshouse is said to be 114 years old. She was admitted to the home on March 14, 1872, at the age of 62 years. She was born in 1810 in East Bethlehem township, Washington county.

It is an observed fact that most of the noted cases of extreme longevity in all countries have been found in charitable homes or almshouse.

The unfortunates have outgrown all their family and are forced into such retreats.

At the same time, there is always present an air of uncertainty about the genuineness of a claim to extreme old age.

Where birth, or parish, or church records, or the testimony of earlier contemporaries cannot be produced there is an element of doubt.

A case in local annals was that of Michael Mooney, said to be 108 years old, who died about 20 years ago. He was under the care of the Little Sisters of the Poor in their home, Eighteenth street above Jefferson. Ireland was his birthplace, where, at Granvith, County Longford, he was born Easter morning, 1792. He was active almost to the day of his death.

Noah Raby when he died a few years back in the Piscataway almshouse, near New Brunswick, N. J., was said to be past 127 years of age. He was a half-breed Indian, born on April 1, 1772, in Gates Court House, N. C. During the War of 1812 he claimed to have served on the ships Constitution and Brandywine. So far as known, his age was never investigated.

Some of the curiosities of longevity are unique.

Niemens de Cugno, native of Bengal, is alleged to have lived to the astonishing age of 370. Lopez Casteguoda, historiographer for Portugal at the time of this individual's death, confirmed the claim.

This not only sounds fishy but fabulous. Those old historiaps were usually a bit doddery over their facts and details at all times. Somebody evidently put one over on Lopez.

Peter Zoctron, a peasant, is another in the same class, who is said to have died January 25, 1724, in France, aged 183 years.

A negress of Tucomia, South America—country not given—lived, it is asserted, evidently on hearsay, to be 175 years old.

England's noted trio are Henry Jenkins, Thomas Parr and Lady Acton. Parr's case is famous in English history, although the claim is doubted.

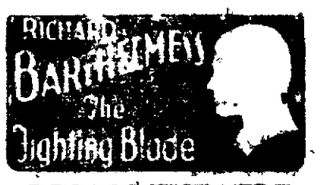

Jenkins died in 1670, said to have been 169 years old. He once gave evidence in court of events which had happened 140 years before.

Lady Acton, widow of Sir John Frances Acton, died at the age of 137 years.

Parr was said to be 152 when "shuffled off."

Mrs. Bruce McCreight, of DuBois, and Mrs. Frank Robinson, of Curwensville, visited our town Monday afternoon.

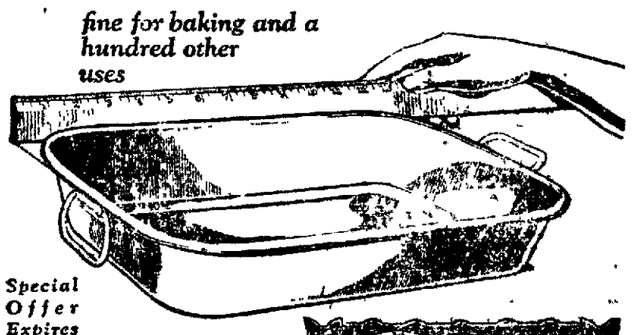

Mr and Mrs. Alton Hummel of Curwensville spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Hummel's brother Mr. Emery Hummel of Clearfield.

ONIONS AND RED BLOOD

If you would have plenty of rich, red blood, says Thomas Lane, eat lots of raw onions. And Thomas may know something about the matter.

Certainly he has the blood to show for it. The doctors have never found anybody who produces good, pure blood so rapidly as this onion-eater. He almost seems to produce blood as a cow produces milk. Every week he sells a pint or two of it to some New York hospital, for transfusion. Recently he underwent his fifty-ninth operation for blood transfusion. He makes a business of it. By night he is a watchman. By day he sells blood.

Never has this man shown any indication of weakness after having his vital fluid drained off, even when giving up three pints in ten days. And he insists that the onions do it. He eats about two dozen a day, the biggest and juiciest he can get. He eats them with meals, sliced with salt on, and between meals, like apples. He just loves onions. He fills his pockets with them when he goes to do his night watching.

The doctors are not so sure as Thomas is about there being a connection between the onions and the blood. But neither are they sure there isn't a connection. The ancient Egyptians, who knew many mysterious truths, worshipped the onion as divine. Medical scientists in recent years have often commented on the surprising hygienic qualities of onions and garlic, sometimes suggesting that these pungent vegetables seem to be good for tuberculosis.

A layman is bound to admit that anything with such a potent taste and odor ought to be good for something. In order to arrive at the truth by a scientific method, it might be well to take an onion referendum among red-blooded Americans.

THE SUPER-EINSTEIN

After Einstein, it appears, comes a greater than Einstein—at least, a scientist of weirder and more radical beliefs. And we may take a proper pride in the fact that he is an American—Calvin S. Page of Chicago, chosen for the latest Nobel prize in physics.

Mr. Page seems to accept some of Prof. Einstein's conclusions, but disregards others, and goes beyond him in working out novel theories.

For one thing, he surprises ordinary folk by announcing that sound, light, electricity and other modes of vibration are one and the same. Radio waves, he explains, are merely "super-light".

This, however, sounds to a layman like a quibble on words. It is well known that sounds we hear are comparatively slow vibrations; that when the vibrations increase in rapidity beyond 16,000 waves per second, we cannot hear them; that after an inaudible band of waves, as they increase in frequency, we begin to see them as colors; and then, after the vibrations become too rapid for the eye or any other organ to perceive, they manifest themselves as light, electricity, X-rays, radio vibrations, etc.

It doesn't seem to matter much what anyone calls them, whether all light, all sound, all electrcity or what not. Other creatures seem to perceive sounds, colors and possibly other grades of vibrations of which we are unconscious. An angel, conceivably, may have organs to perceive radio waves. With us, it is, for practical purposes, merely a question of having ordinary or other devices to perceive whatever vibrations, of any intensity, may be useful to us.

Mr. Page also turns gravity inside out, maintaining that we are held to the earth not by its pull, but by the push of the outer universe. That might be very disturbing if the practical effect on us were not precisely the same.

THE MARKET AT NOON

New York, March 25.—Elimination of the extra dividend on American Can excited a restraining influence in the forenoon trading on the stock exchange today. American Can dropped nearly 3 points to below 111. The market in general, following an irregular opening, turned heavy.

Oils showed pronounced heaviness, losses ranging from ½ to over one point. Cosden lost one point to 35 and Houston oil at 69, Pacific Oil at 57½; Midland Oil at 36¾ and Standard Oil of California at 61¾ were off over one point.

Steels were barely steady, losses being limited to fractions. Rails after early regularity turned somewhat heavy.

Mrs. Bradford Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Phoebus, Virginia.—"Having this opportunity I just cannot refrain from saying a word of praise for the Lydia E. Pinkham medicines. I have used them as occasion required for twenty years, and my three sisters have also used them, and always with the most gratifying results. During the Change of Life I had the usual distressing symptoms—hot flashes, insomnia, etc.,—and I am pleased to testify to the wonderful results I obtained from the Vegetable Compound. I heartily recommend it to any woman and I will be pleased to answer any inquiries that might be sent to me through the publication of my testimonial."—Mrs. H. L. BRADFORD, 103 Armstead Street, Phoebus, Virginia.

Consider carefully Mrs. Bradford's letter. Her experience ought to help you. She mentions the trials of middle age and the wonderful results she obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you are suffering from nervous troubles, irritability, or if other annoying symptoms appear and you are blue at times, you should give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Progress Editorials for Women

WESTWARD HO!

By FLORENCE DAVIES

Westward the course of empire—the women of America will say that once again this summer, when many thousand strong, they will follow the westward trail clear to the coast for 1924 biennial convention of the General federation of Women's clubs.

Wisely enough, the Club women of this country only attempt to foregather in great numbers, once in two years. That means that each gathering is an occasion of real significance.

A glance at the program suggested for this great roll call of club women in June amply justifies the generous duration of the allotted time. This is to be no three-day affair. Club women from The United States and Canada and from sixteen foreign countries who will be represented will devote fourteen days to the discussion of the varied and far-reaching aspects of federated club work.

And fourteen days is none too long for this, since club women now count no good thing foreign to their thought and interest. Their aims and ideals have enlarged steadily in the past twent years, and their vision widened to include both the sterner and the softer sides of life.

From the early days of literary programs idealistic in purpose, the club woman of today strives to be a better citizen. Neither the underfed children in the schools, the trash in the alleys, the inadequate town water system or the kind of man who is going to run for mayor is beyond her ken!

And now with one of the garden spots of the world as a central meeting point it is small wonder that the convention managers promise that the coming meeting in Los Angeles will probably be the largest that has been held since the New York convention of 1916.

It's a pretty long haul to California from the east. But the railroads have been kind and surely every club will make an extra effort to meet the expenses of sending at least one of their number to this great meeting of the thinking, caring women of America. Thousand of women who have never crossed the line of the Mississippi before will make this a happy occasion to see and know the beckoning golden west. Those who know Californians are perfectly sure that a royal welcome will be waiting for them.

The women who travel across the prairies to meet their sisters in the fairy land of beauty will surely go back east, not only better clubwomen but better Americans. For they will have seen for the first time something of the size and sweep, the far-reaching prairies, the mountains piling mass on mass, the rolling valleys of the land that is their

It is not generally known that no one outside of a member of the fire department is permitted to jump and ride on the electric pumper while en route to and from a fire or an alarm. While the service of outside help is appreciated at all times, yet remains the fact that if the Fire Chief permits others than firemen to ride he is responsible for damages should one get injured, and not the borough officials. The regular firemen are insured against accident or death by an indemnity insurance company, for which the borough pays an annual premium, hence they are protected. ANDERSON DOES NOT BEGRUDGE "WETS" THEIR LAST LAUGH

New York, March 26. (INS.)—Likening himself to a prisoner of war in the hands of the enemy, Wm. H. Anderson, former head of the Anti-Saloon League of New York state, who did as much as any man perhaps to bring about prohibition in America, in a statement before he was taken to Sing Sing to serve a term of from 1 to 2 years declared that after the damage "I have inflicted upon the liquor traffic I shall not begrude the wets and their defacto allies any satisfaction from kicking" while he is down one they could not whip in a fair fight.

Anderson said he had blown up "the liquor fortifications of America" but that to do it he took risks which "judged by safety first standards in the light of hindsight were errors of judgment or blunders on my part, though the dry cause was tremendously benefitted."

S. D. Voters To Express President'l Preferences

ter two months campaign which developed alliances unprecedented in the history of the state. The state proposal meeting at Pierre, in December, which resulted in "fusion" opposition to William Gibbs McAdoo on the Democratic ticket, also put wide cracks in the Republican ranks.

Gov. W. H. McMaster, who received the Republican majority nomination in his campaign for the United States Senate, has stumped the state for Senator Johnson, as have Senator Peter Norbeck, Congressman Royal C Johnson and other strong campaigners.

Senator Sterling, who accepted the minority nomination in his Senate race has been the vigorous campaigner for President Coolidge, who has majority choice on the Republican ticket. Newspapers of the state, however, have largely swung their support to Coolidge.

Gov. McMaster's "gasoline war" resulting in sharp price reductions last summer has made excellent campaign material for him, but Senator Sterling has found ammunition in recent bank failures. His support of the new bonus measure also has been used on the stump.

No candidate has been put in the field against McAdoo, who received the Democratic majority nomination, but fusion forces are seeking the election of an uninstructed delegation to the New York convention.

TWO FINE SHOWINGS

The Driggs theater audience was pleasantly surprised last evening at the excellence of the Smith production "The Man From Brodney's," in which are featured Warren J. Ferrigan, Wanda Hawley and Alice Calhoun. The author of the story is George Barr McCutcheon and the reputation made by that author was more than kept up by the artistry of Kerrigan, Hawley and Calhoun. The last showing here will be this evening.
This week is a full week of features. Tomorrow and Thursday evening the attraction will be Richard Barthelmess in "The Fighting Blade" which those who have seen it declare is paramount to "Robin Hood."

GANG TRIED TO EXTORT BIG SUM FROM EDSEL FORD

Detroit, Mar. 25. (INS.)—Twenty men are sought by police today as accomplices of Maslox Simek, 23, in an alleged plot to extort $1,959,000 from Edsel Ford, son of Henry Ford, by threatening to kill Edsel and blind his wife and children.

Simek is said to have confessed that he was the tool of a gang of 20 radicals, and that Mrs. Annie Hladik, his landlady, whom he accused of forcing him to write the threatening letter is innocent. A warrant charging him with malicious threats to extort was recommended.

Mrs. Hladek was freed.

Simek is said to have admitted that he and 20 others with Bolshevist leanings met and plotted to rob Mr. Ford by intimidating him. He was told to blame the plot on Mrs. Hladik if caught, he said, police declare.

Simek was arrested late yesterday after he had picked up and carried home a paper box containing copies of old newspapers which had been placed in a vacant lot to trap the writer of three letters received by Ford. The letters threatened Edsel and his wife with death and their children, two girls and a boy, with blindness unless the money was left in the lot.

Assails Bankruptcy Law, Saying Its Cost To U. S. Business Hundred Million

Washington, March 25.—(INS.)—Legitimate business of the country is losing $100,000,000 a year through the "maladministration of the bankruptcy law and the bankruptcy ring which controls proceedings in the federal courts," Rep. La Guardia, Republican, of New York, today told the House rules committee.

He urged the appointment of a special committee to investigate and report to the House with recommendations for changes in the law to remedy the situation.

INTER-CHURCH LEAGUE INDIVIDUAL AVERAGES

The results of the Inter-Church Bowling League to date include some excellent averages that give credit to the steady and experienced bowlers. The Presbyterians have five bowlers over 150, East End has three, West Side and Trinity Methodists two each, Episcopal and St. Francis Catholic one each. Every team has a match to roll before the close and each bowler has a chance to increase his average:

LEAGUE MEETING WILL BE HELD AT 'BURG WEDNESDAY

A meeting, at which it is expected a baseball league will be formed embracing the towns of Philipsburg, Osceola, DuBois and Clearfield, will be held at the Moshannon National Bank building in Philipsburg Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock. The movement looking to the formation of such a league was started a couple of weeks ago. It was first expected that Tyrone would be represented instead of DuBois, as the latter town was supposed to be arranging to join a league composed of Jefferson and Elk county towns. But Tyrone sports got cold feet and decided not to enter.

Five or six representatives of each of the four towns mentioned will meet at Philipsburg tomorrow evening and endeavor to work out a plan for a league to be made of all home players. The idea of those interested in the movement is to furnish a little recreation and sport during the summer and not make it the expensive luxury baseball has been in the past, when a lot of high-salaried, low brow semi-pro players were hired and foisted on the different communities in this region with unsatisfactory result in nearly every instance.

There is no reason why such a league as is contemplated could not be made a feature of the summer activities of this section and it is thot the representatives of the four towns will have no trouble agreeing upon a plan for same.

PARENTS' QUARREL OVER CHILDREN ENDS IN SLAYING

Chicago, March 25. (INS.)—Resentment stored after a quarrel over a neighbor's children flamed out in pistol shots early today when Herman Tannhauser shot and probably fatally wounded Mrs. Bertha Kirly, mother of several children, then killed himself.

Trouble between Tannhauser and Mrs. Kirkley started a month ago when the woman charged that he had become abusive toward her brood and when she interfered turned his anger on her. He was placed under peace bond. Later, he received a notice to vacate his apartment.

Mrs. Kirkly went to the corner store early today. When she returned, Tannhauser was waiting for her in the hallway. He fired two shots into her back, then turned the gun on himself.

Physicians at Michael Reese Hospital said it was doubtful whether Mrs. Kirkly will recover.

MRS. CARL PATCHIN'S FUNERAL

The funeral of the late Mrs. Carl Patchin will be held at Burnside Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Odd Fellows cemetery there.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

Home Made Cough Mixture Best

Spreads Over the Membrane, Soothes, Heals and Stops Cough Quick.

Make your own cough syrup in two minutes at home if you want the best. It costs but a trifle.

Simple coughs, or stubborn coughs, it doesn't matter which, this home made mixture will stop them quicker than any expensive cough syrup you can buy ready made.

Get from Stewart Drug Co., or any druggist one ounce of Parmint (double strength)—to this add a little granulated sugar, as directed, and enough water to make one half pint—that's all there is to it, and children like it.

Like a soothing, healing poultice one costly substance in this home made cough mixture spreads itself completely over the membrane of the throat. This causes the most stubborn hang-on cough to cease almost instantly. No ordinary slow-acting cough syrup contains this expensive ingredient.

Sinclair Up Against The District Attorney Of D. C. As The Next Move

Washington, March 25. (INS.)—The formal certification of Harry F. Sinclair, oil magnate, for contempt of the United States Senate was placed in the hands of the District Attorney here today for action.

It was signed this morning by Senator George H. Moses, Republican, of New Hampshire, acting President of the Senate.

The next step is for the District Attorney to place Sinclair under technical arrest, pending presentation of the matter to a Federal Grand Jury here next week.

I. R. LOGAN

Kinzua, Mar. 17.—J. R. Logan, one of the well known business men of this place died suddenly this morning at 10:50 of heart disease. Mr. Logan conducted the tailor shop in this place and after coming to work this morning complained of not feeling well and started home to rest. When at French's Drug store he leaned against the corner of the building and suddenly slid down to the ground dead.

He had been a resident of Kinzua about three years and was about 40 years of age. He is survived by his wife, one son and a nephew who made his home with him.

The remains were taken to the home of his mother, Mrs. H. B. Logan and the funeral took place from St. Francis Catholic Church. Interment in Calvary cemetery at Clearfield. [illegible]

Finds Kellogg's Bran "Easy way to avoid constipation" after suffering for years

Constipation is a dangerous disease! It can lead to many others. Twenty years' suffering with constipation undermined this man's health. Kellogg's Bran restored his health as it has done for thousands. This is what he says:

"Gentlemen:
After eating Kellogg's Bran twice a day for one month I find it not only an 'Easy Way to Avoid Constipation,' but an easy and most pleasant way to cure it. I have been troubled with constipation [illegible] for more than twenty years [illegible] after adopting the milk and bran diet I find my stomach greatly improved, and find it a special for constipation.
[illegible] I deem it only justice that you should know what your product has done for me and what it is [illegible] doing for others."

[illegible]

[illegible] ALL constipation because it is ALL bran, [illegible] results. It [illegible] cleans and purifies the intestines [illegible] own way. Don't experiment. Only ALL bran can be 100 [illegible] effective.

[illegible] Kellogg's Bran, [illegible] guaranteed [illegible] relief—or your [illegible] money. You [illegible] two tablespoonfuls daily—[illegible] with every meal.

[illegible] delicious nut-like—[illegible] Enjoy it with [illegible] other [illegible] cooked with hot cereals, or in [illegible] every package. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by grocers everywhere.

A visit to our lumber storage sheds will show you conclusively that we have an "on-time" and dependable service for you when you start to build your home.

There are huge stacks of lumber of every description—all the kinds you'll need, waiting for the "zing" of the saw to cut them into the various parts which go to make up your home. Then, too, there are the things we buy—doors, window frames of every size, CROMAR OAK FLOORING, nails, hinges and the thousand-and-one other things which go into the making of your home.

Come and ask us about our service for you when you plan your home. We have plans, we have materials, we have a dependable service which will make your building go right along every minute from the time it starts.

It Captivates You

Nature took the most beautiful things of the world—melted them—and made the diamond.

A gem that arouses the admiration of everyone—that glistens as the sun's rays and twinkles as the heavenly stars.

Today the diamond—perfect of cut—free from flaw, prevails as the unchallenegd pride of the world.

You can bring pride and joy to some loved one with an Easter gift of nature's most precious stone—the diamond.

Each stone is stylishly mounted in white gold or platinum—each ring is artistically designed—a fitting tribute of your devotion.

Invest in a diamond today and your gift will be a perpetual pride to her.
